REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Applicant's arguments have been fully considered and are persuasive.

The feature of the radial distance between the outer periphery of the magnetic flux short circuit preventive hole and the rotor core being increased gradually in conformity to the approach to the d-axis side from the q-axis, in combination with the other limitations present, are neither disclosed nor taught by the prior art of record.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
